British Values in PE at Bisley Blue Coat C of E Primary School

Rule of Law

- Pupils are taught about age appropriate rules, fairness and respect through PE activities.
- Pupils learn to follow rules individually and in groups.
- Our ethos in PE and sport teaches winning and losing in good spirit.

Individual Liberty

- PE recognises individual differences. Individuals are listened to and respected.
- Pupils are taught to respect safety and to respect others' safety through PE.

Democracy

- Pupils are taught about the need for different roles and responsibility including teamwork, decision making and leadership through PE.
- Pupils are given a chance to air their views and make choices and decisions through pupil voice.

Tolerance of others with different faiths and belief

- Children of all faiths and beliefs are included in PE lessons and their views and beliefs are respected.

Mutual Respect

- Mutual respect is ingrained within PE teaching. Pupils are taught to respect the views, abilities and ideas of others in all PE lessons.
